IIM - JRD Tata Award for “Excellence in Corporate leadership in Metallurgical Industries 2021”

The Indian Institute of Metals [IIM], a premier professional organization, with headquarters at Kolkata, was registered in 1946. IIM in its journey spanning over 74 years has been recognizing eminent metallurgists, material scientists, industry professionals, researchers, teachers and students for their significant contributions concerned with Minerals, Metals, Materials and their applications, since inception.

The National Metallurgists Day [NMD] awards were instituted by the Ministry of Steel & Mines in 1962 and the Institute has been organizing the annual event ever since.

In the diamond jubilee year of the Institute and the centenary year of Tata Steel, the IIM National Council, on the recommendations of the IIM Awards Committee, approved instituting the Special Award titled: IIM - JRD Tata Award for: “Excellence in Corporate leadership in Metallurgical Industries”

Purpose of the Award:

One annual award to an Indian citizen shall be made to an outstanding active Corporate Executive in metallurgical industry, in recognition of significant contributions in the fields of leadership and development, having an impact on national and / or international scenario.
